

Dr. Shandi L. Dabbs received her Bachelor of Science degree in Communication Disorders and Doctor of Audiology degree from Auburn University. Dr. Dabbs completed her residency training with Hearing Doctors of Georgia in 2009 and practiced in Auburn, Alabama specializing in cochlear implants, paediatrics, and hearing aid technology. She served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Alabama Academy of Audiology (ALAA), as Secretary, President, and as a convention liaison and Board Member for this professional organization since 2006. She has also served as a member of multiple ABA Task Forces. Dr. Dabbs' special interests include hearing aid technology and pediatrics.